Sir,

I have the honor to point out that in the Form of proposal for Insurance, a certificate is required from the Head of the Office, to the effect that the proposal was signed in his presence .

This in many cases necessitate a costly journey on the part of the proposer , and as the Head of an Office has ample means of satisfying himself as to the signature of the proposer being genuine, I would suggest that the certificate be altered to "Signed by the Proposer"

Extract from the Proceedings of the Mysore State Life Insurance Committee held on the 28th April 1900.

2. Memo: No: 308, enclosing Government Secretary's docket No: 5487 F. dated 1st February 1900. forwarding Copy of Military — Assistants No 1343. dated 24th January 1900, Suggesting that as it necessitates Costly Journey on the part of proposer and as the head of an Office has ample means of Satisfying himself as to the Signature of the proposer, the Certificate — "Signed by the proposer in my presence" in the proposal form may be altered to "Signed by the Proposer.

That as Rule 17, requires the proposal to be Signed in the presence of the proposer's immediate Superior — Not head of an office — the Committee is of opinion that there is no necessity to alter the Certificate.

Sir,

Referring to your letter N. 1343 dated the 24th January 1900 suggesting certain alterations in the certificate appended to the Form of proposals for insurance I have the honor to inform you that Rule 17 requires the proposal to be signed in the presence of the proposer's immediate superior not head of an office, and that the Insurance Committee to which the Govt commends is of opinion that there is no necessity to alter the certificate now prescribed by this Rule is desirable.
